

Blackrock College House System

When you become a student in Blackrock, you also become a member of a House. There are 6 Houses named after people of significance in our history. Each House has a colour and all members of the House wear their house colours for all Inter-House competitions. The events and the houses themselves help to create a sense of community within your year group and within the college.

